

Alef Education Wins Prestigious Hamdan-ALECSO Award for Digital Innovation in Education

Abu Dhabi, 15 May 2026: Alef Education, a UAE-based global leader in education technology, has been awarded the prestigious Hamdan-ALECSO Award for Digital Innovation in Education, presented by Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum Foundation for Medical and Educational Sciences and the Arab League Educational, Cultural, and Scientific Organization (ALECSO).

The accolade honours Alef Pathways, the company's innovative AI-powered personalised learning platform that supports students across core subjects including Mathematics, Science, Arabic, and English. This recognition underscores Alef Education's commitment to shaping the future of learning and supporting global education transformation through AI-powered solutions.

Dr. Aishah Al Yammahi, Strategic Advisor at Alef Education, received the accolade during an award ceremony held in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, attended by 20 Ministers of Higher Education and Scientific Research. The Hamdan-ALECSO Award aims to promote excellence in education, inspire innovation, and encourage individuals and institutions to develop transformative solutions that elevate the learning experience across the Arab world.

Alef Pathways is designed to make learning more meaningful, engaging, and accessible. By harnessing data-driven insights, it delivers tailored learning journeys for each student. The platform's integrated AI Tutor fosters problem-solving, self-regulation, and individualised learning experiences, ensuring that students learn at their own pace and in ways that best suit their strengths and needs.
